RICHMOND, VA., SUNDAY, MAY 4, 1913.

THE DISPATCH FOUNDED 1890.

AMHERST

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Amherst, Va., May 3.—Dr. Sale, who for the past two weeks has been holding revival

Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Amherst, Va., May 3.—Dr. Sale, who for the peast twe weeks has been holding revival services in the Baptist Church here, has returned to his home in Richmond.

Miss Gladys Taliaferro. of Lynchburg. Is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Bessie Brodle.

Mrs. Bessie E. Ware and Mrs. P. M.

Ware spont Wedneaday in Lynchburg.

Richard Taliaferro and family, of Lynchburg, this week visited at Mrs. S. B. Taliaferro's.

The annual Mad Day exercises which were observed at Sweet Briar College Monday afternoor, were largely attended by the per ple of Amierst. The location of the grounds at Sweet Briar makes it an ideal place for holding fates of every kind, and at this season of the year nature with lavish handing sweet Briar one of the most attractive and the garden of the year nature with lavish handing sweet Briar one of the most attractive and the garden of the year nature with lavish handing sweet Briar one of the most attractive and the garden of the year nature with lavish handing sweet Briar one of the most attractive and the garden of the year nature with lavish handing sweet Briar one of the most attractive spots in this section of Piedmont Vr. glinia. The fete opened with inspiring music, and the gathering of the queen's subject. 200 in number, in the box circle in front was escorted to her throne where the cordinate of the gathering of the queen's subject. Miss Bloomer, wended its way to the May pole, where the dance around the May pole for the canded its way to the May pole, where the dance around the May pole for the entertainment of the queen and her court followed. The purple, orange, rose and other colors worn by the queen and her court followed. The purple, orange, rose and other colors worn by the queen and her court followed. The purple, orange, rose and other colors worn by the queen and her court followed. The purple orange, rose and other colors worn by the queen and her court followed. The purple orange from an application of the followed its way to the May pole, where the

GORDONSVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Gordonsville, Va., May 2—Miss Ida Boston, who has been teaching school at Burr Hill, this county, the past session, has returned to the home of her aunt. Miss Sallie Bosto the home of her aunt, biss calle botton, near town.

E. R. Roads, of Dillwyn, spent several days this week in the city.

B. M. Davenport and family, after a weeks stay with relatives in the city and Madison, have returned to their home in Madison, have returned to their nome in Richmond.

Mrs. Bettie Harrison and son. Richard, of Scottaville, were guesis this week of the former's nephew. N. A. Linney, in the city. S. Marcus has been spending the past week in New York.

Mrs. William Dunn, of Ashland, spent several days this week with friends in the city.

city.
W. C. Baker and S. E. Siratton were in Washington this week.
Mrs. R. S. Wilkirson and two children left on Wednesday to spend the summer with her mother. In Neison County.
Miss Belie Martin, who has been teaching school at New Hope the past session, has returned home to spend the summer.
Hev. R. H. Clarke mas returned from a business trip to Washington and Philadeiphia.

J. A. Thornton has moved his family from Wayneshoro to Gordonaville, occupying the property recently vacated by Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson.

Georgie Rogers at 2 o'clock Wednesday, April 99, at 21 Saratoga Street. Miss Daisy Nurney returned Tuesday from High Point, N. C., where she spent Sunday and Monday with her sister, Mrs. M. W. Ladies' Benevolent and Social Union e Christian Church issued more than

Week-end parties to Lake Drummond are quiet shores of the lake for several days' recreation.

Homer Lewis Powell, of Norfolk, and Miss Nora E. Heffington of Driver, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of Copenhagen blue cloth. Noble Powell, brother of the groom was best man. Miss Linda Heffington, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The parlor was artistically decorated with palms, ferns and potted plants, the color effect being white and green. The ceremony was read by Rev. I. W. Johnson, of Suffolk.

Marvin S. Hill has returned from a four nd green. The critical state of Suffolk.

W. Johnson. of Suffolk.

Marvin S. Hill has returned from a four nonths' visit to friends and relatives in Georgia.

Mrs. Nona Giadden, of Charleston, S. C., is the guest of Miss Louise Taylor.

WEST POINT

West Point. Va.. May 3.—At the regular meeting of the School Improvement League this week the name. "School Improvement League." was changed to "School and Civic Improvement League." The president Mrs. W. S. Eastwood, appointed ten chairmen to make up their own circles from the league, each circle to raise at least $10 during the summer as a fund on which to build for many needed improvements by the early fail.

The Monday Reading Circle has changed its name to "The Woman's Club of West Point," and is to be broadened along many lines.

Point," and is to be broadened along many lines.

The City Club is forging away to do many and botter things for the good of the young men of the town. On last Friday evening the club entertained in the Masonic Hall auditorium with a musical program, followed later in the evening by a social hour, the younger people dancing.

Among the courtesies extended Mrs. A. P. Richardson, of Richmond, and Mrs. J. Powell Garland, of Holly Fork, New Kent, while the guests of Mrs. George W. Richardson was a delightful entertainment given her guests. There were about twenty-five women present, and there was a test, "The Bry Mrs. B. W. Hefferson, a formatic formatic."

women present, and there was a test, "The Bird Romance."

Mrs. B. W. Hefferron, a former resident of West Point, who spent the winter in Ashland, and will go for the summer to Warrenton, has this week visited her hosts of friends in West Point, being the guest of Mrs. M. M. Puller. Wednesday she lunched with Mrs. Andrew Brookes.

Mrs. Herbert I. Lewis has just returned from a charming trip to Gloucester County, where she attended a family reunion in the home of Mrs. Rose, formerly Miss Jennie Parks, of Norfolk, a cousin of Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Page and Lieutenant Maxfield, of the navy, and families were present. The scene of this happy affair was at Kilvarrock, the old homestead.

OLD POINT

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

party of twelve of the officers and women of the fort on Friday night preceding the hop.

The many friends of Major F. P. Reynolds will be delighted to hear of his recent promotion to lleutenant colonelcy. Colonel Reynolds will leave shortly by way of the Panama. Canal for the Philippines.

Miss Bessie Merritt entertained at lunch at the Norfolk Country Club this week for Mrs. Arnold Becker. of Naw York. Miss Merritt's other guests were Miss Ryan, Mrs. Merritt's other guests were Miss Ryan, Mrs. Merritt's leutenant Keen and Lieutenant Rogers.

Mrs. W. H. Heron, Miss Katherine Heron, R. C. Henderson, Holiand Heron and H. C. Eddy came down from Washington Saturdsy morning to spend the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mearns and children have returned to Washington after a short solourn.

Mrs. C. S. Williams, wife of Captain C. S. Williams, of the United States steamship Rhode Island, has returned to Washington after a short solourn after a short solourn here with Captain Williams.

Mrs. J. M. K. Davis, wife of General J. M.

ams. J. M. K. Davis, wife of General J. M. C. Davis, retired. United States Army, has eft for Washington after spending the winter for washington after spending the win-ter here.

Brigadier-General Caleb H. Carleton, United States Army, retired, who has been spending the winter at the Chamberlin, left Friday for Washington en route to his home in Rye, N. Y.
Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Beard, of Baltimore, have left for Plymouth, N. C. after a week's visit with Lieutenant' and Mrs. Guy Mix in the fort.

WARRENTON

Wayneshoro to Gordonsville, occupying the property recently vacated by Mrs. R. S. Wilkinson.

Wilkinson.

Judge Gordonsville visitor on Wednesday.

J. H. Stratton and R. R. Goodloe were Warrenton visitors this week.

Mrs. C. E. Morris, of Somerset, was the guest of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Martin, on Tuesday.

The Misses Walker, of Somerset, were in Gordonsville on Wednesday shopping.

Mrs. John W. Ncott returned Thursday from a visit to her son in Basic, accompanied by her son's wife and child.

SUFFOLK

SUFFOLK

Suffolk. Vs., May 3.—Miss Lucy Kimbali teacher of domestic science in the federson liligh School, with twenty-eight girls from the fine transport of the party in the domestic science in the federson liligh School, with twenty-eight girls from the fine transport of the party in the fine party in the party is en route to New York as a recent guest at the home of Mrs. J. B. Britton.

Mrs. Natalle Hurxthal, of New York, is also a guest at Mrs. Britton's.

Mrs. Murray Forbes has returned to Warrenton on Sunday after attending some time in Devon. Pa., with Mrs. William F. Wilbur. D. K. Kerrenton, after spending some time in Devon. Pa., with Mrs. William F. Wilbur. D. K. Kerrenton, after spending some time in Devon. Pa., with Mrs. William F. William F. William F. William S. T. H. Lion and A. W. Singdair, of Manassaw and the members of her bridal party. The dining-room was decerated in pink and white, sath ribbons extending from the pink sinded lights. A liuncheon of three courses was served. At 1500 oclock the guests left for Berea Church, where the wedding ceremony was solemalized.

Miss. Bessle Holland returned Tuesday from Catonsville. Md. where she was a bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Downes to Charles Clifton Anderson, of Baltimore.

The Mispa Bable Class met with Miss Georgie Rogers at 2 o'clock Wednesday, April 39, at 221 Saratoga Street.

Miss Daisy Nurney returned Tuesday from been spending some time at the home of Mrs. J. B. Britton, left the past week for Richmond.

Rev. Dudley Powers, of Flint, Mich., and Richmond, who has also been a guest at the home of Mrs. Britton, left this week for Richmond, who has also been a guest at the home of Mrs. Britton, left this week for Richmond.

Rev. Mr. Powers has recently purchased the "Winmill" property on the Waterloo Pike, near Warrenton, and will return in the early summer and spend the summer there, having as his guests Mr. and Mrs. Richard Page.

Miss Elizabeth Hutton has recently teturned from a visit to Washington.

George Payne, of Baltimore, was the recent guest of his brother, John M. Payne.

Mrs. Stark, of Culpeper, is spending some time at the home of Mrs. John R. Turner.

Wallace Brown a student of the Episcopal High School, at Alexandria, spent the past week-end at "Astrim" with his father, W. W. Brown.

The Rt. Rev. Alfred Randolph, of Norfolk, has returned home after spending several days in Warrenton, at Carter Hall.

Miss Ethel Moses, of Mobile, Ala. who has been spending some time in New York, has returned to Warrenton for several months, and is the guest of Mrs. Hugh Hamilton.

Miss Wynward Barker entertained on Saturday evening at her home on Culpeper Street.

Stewart White and Clyde Mariows spent the past week-end in Washington.

Joseph Bell spent some time the past week with Mrs. Bell, at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Grenville Gaines Mr. Liell returned on Monday last to Richmond.

Mrs. F. E. Boorman and daughter, Elizabeth, who have been visiting in Lexington, Ky, have returned to their home in Warrenton.

ky, nave levens has returned home after renton.
Lefancey Evans has returned home after an absence of several months spent in the far. South in pursuance of his duties as special field agent for the Department of far South in pursuance of his duties as special field agent for the Department of Agriculture.

The Upperville Horse Show will be held on June 12 and 13. This show, known as the "Father of Virginia Horse Shows," is the first in the circuit, and is always well attended by a large number of representative people from the nearby cities.

At the convocation of Pledmont parishes of the Episcopai Church held at Fairfax the past week, Rev. Edwin S. Hinks, of St. James Church, Warrenton, was elected dean of the convocation, and Hev. D. C. Mayers, of the St. Stephen's Church, at Casanova, was elected secretary.

Mrs. Harry C. Groome entertained the "garden club" on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward S. Turner entertained the Ladies' Reading Club on Wednesday last.

Miss Elizabeth Bashaw was hostess to the same club on the Wednesday before.

R. N. Brooke, of Washington, but a native of Warrenton, has been selected to paint for the University of Virginia at Charlottee-wille a full-sized portrait of President Woodrow Wilson. The honor came unsolleited to Mr. Brooke.

APPOMATTOX

[Special to The Times-Dispatch | ppomettex, Va., May 3.-Mrs. John Hes-of Crewe, is visiting her sister, Mrs. mas Bawcock. Thomas Baffock.

Miss Virginia Atwood has returned from a visit to Richmond, where she has been for several days.

Jerry Burke, of Washington and Lee University, is at home recuperating from a slight illness.

Miss Perol Caldwell entertained a number of friends at her home last Thursday evening.

Rev. J. M. Rowland, of Richmond, will lecture at the auditorium on Monday evening his subject being "Courtship and Marriage." of this happy affair was at Kilvarrock, the old homestead.

Mrs. Lucy Bird Dudley spent the week-cand with friends at Midlothian, and on Monday went to Richmond, where she has a son, a medical student, and spent several days with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Montague. She is now visiting Mrs. Emmett Lipscomb, in Hanover.

Mrs. Wyatt Woodward, of Barhamsville, New Kent, is the guest of relatives and friends in town.

Mrs. J. Carroll Neale, of Chesterfield, formerly Miss Annie Feild, of West Point, is the guest of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Gieorge Feild.

Mrs. Penich, of Lynchburg, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. G. Sickleford, of the Christian College.

Mrs. Penich, of Lynchburg, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. W. McKinney, for several weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. J. W. Downey accompanied by her little son, Pendleton, and daughter. Anne, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Hubbard, of this place, left last week for Windsor.

Italian

Silk Underwear wears better than any other. You will find in our Knit Underwear Department, third floor, every wanted and needed garment, from the plain finished ones to the fancy lace and ribbon trimmed ones. Italian Silk Vests, in white, pink, light blue and lavender, for $1.50. Others for $1.98, $2.50 and $8.50. Some are embroidered.

Italian Silk Union Suits for $2.98, $3.98 and $4.98. Also, Chemise, Drawers, Bloomers, Lace Trimmed Combination Suits and Gowns can be had in this upto-date Silk Underwear.

Where Things Are What They Seem

Art Department

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

1912 designs, consisting of Table Runners, Laundry Bags, Whisk Broom Holders, Centre Pieces, Shirt

25c	Packages	Reduced	to19e
50c	Packages	Reduced	to 39c
75c	Packages	Reduced	to59e
0.0	Dankage	Dadwood	to ====

Handsome Summer Suits

Tailored Eponge Suits, in Copenhagen, Nell $10.00 rose and tan, smart cut coats and skirts, at.... Fancy Blouse Eponge, in all new shades, contrasting collar and cuffs, draped skirts, at...... $12.50 Sting collar and cuns, uraped sales, Novelty Crash in Linen Suits, all new shades, $15.00 Fancy Stripe Eponge Suits, plain colors in $25.00 late style cuts, at $20.00 and...... $25.00

Beautiful Lingerie and Voile Waists

Voile and Lingerie Waists, flat collars, with deep $1.00 ruffle jabot, also high neck, with pin tucks; special. He jabot, also high neck, with pin turnover collar and $1.25 cuffs, finished with button-hole embroidery, at Dainty Lingerie Waists of fine lawn, pin tucked, $1.48 "The Pompadour" Voile Waists, in all colors, $2.48 sheer voile, collars and jabot, at $1.98 and..... White and Black Jap Silk Waists, flat plaited $3.98 trimming around collar and down front, at $2.98 and

A Sale of Muslin Underwear

A lot of Circular Drawers, lace and employed trimmed, open and closed styles; worth 69c; several 50c A lot of Circular Drawers, lace and embroidery styles to select from for..... Another lot that sold for $1.00 to $1.50 that are 75c slightly soiled from display for...... A lot of Slipover Gowns, lace and embroidery 50c trimmed; several styles to select from for..... A large assortment of Slipover Gowns, made of longcloth and French nainsook, neat or elaborately trimmed with laces and embroideries, also combination lace and embroidery, ribbon run beadings; worth $1.25 to $1.50; some hand embroidered ones among 98c the lot; choice

Nemo Week at The Thalhimer Store

commences Monday, May 5th. During this week special values and fittings will be given in Nemo Corsets. No woman should miss this opportunity of seeing and trying one of the new models with the Lastikop webbings and the latest Nemo inventions. Some of the models are made of a high grade of batiste. Just as lasting as coutil, but lighter in texture and cooler for the warm Models 322, 324 and 326 for $3.00. Other Models for $3.50,$4.00 and $5.00 Models to suit the slender, medium and stout figures; guaranteed not to rust or break. Visit our Corset Department this week and get acquainted with

Sale of Smart Summer Dresses

New Spring Suits

Offered at Reduced Prices $15.00 and $17.50 Suits, plain serges and $10.00 fancy mixtures, now and novelty mixtures, now..... *$40.00 Suits, all novelty materials and styles, $25.00 now $50.00 Silk Suits, in colors, old blue, tan and $35.00 navy, now

Who Needs Rugs?

Forty Best Prairie Grass Rugs ever made, woven from selected fresh grass; all have fresh look and clearness of

Twenty-five Hodges Wool and Fibre Rugs; these celebrated Rugs, the product of years of manufacturing ability, all new patterns and astonishing values; full size, 9x12 feet. $6.75

50c Crex Carpet, 40c. Yard Wide Crex, closely woven, in solid colors, red and green, for rooms and halls. 27-inch for stairs, to match, 35c. 75c Bordered Crex Runner, 6oc.

36-inch Bordered Crex Runner, closely woven; an elegent, sanitary runner or tracker.

50c Crex Rugs, 35c. Closely Woven Crex Rugs, size 18x36 inches, $1.50 Wool and Fibre Rugs, $1.00. Pretty Wool and Fibre Rugs; size 26x48 inches.

65c Wool and Fibre Carpet, 45c. Heavy Wool and Fibre Carpet, reversible, 36 inches wide; very appropriate for halls and rooms; colors, green, also red. 27-inch for stairs to match, 35c yard.

Offered in a Wonderful Array of Colors and Patterns

42-inch Coleen Poplin, one of the season's most wanted fabrics; does not crush; in the following shades: New brown, wistaria, reseda, green, gray, tan, light blue and black-$1.50 he yard. 40-inch Crepe de Chine, good heavy weight,

Offering of Ratine

In All the New and Wanted Shades

new shades, including the new blue and Wilson green; special price, 58c yard.

Ratine, 40 inches wide, in the new shades, old blue and Nell rose, only 50c yard.

For the new Companion Dresses we are showing a beautiful number in brocaded ratine;

comes in shades of blue, tan, lavender, pink,

Ratines, 27 inches wide; every wanted color,

Imported Ratine Crepe, 40 inches wide. This is a very fine material, with a colored ratine stripe of blue, pink, green, lavender and black, 75c yard.

All That's Silk

both plain and fizked effects, 25c yard.

brown and white, 75c yard.

Silk Ratine, 36 inches wide, in all of the golden brown, Havanah brown, light navy, dark navy, Copenhagen, gray, Nell rose, reseda, green and a complete line of evening shades, including black and white, $1.50 the yard. 18-inch Wash Silk, in neat stripes, blue, pink, brown, tan, violet, black and white; exceptional value at $35c the yard. 36-inch Satin Brocade, in the following colors:

Navy, brown, black, old rose, pink, light blue, gold, gray, mais, violet; only $1.00 the yard. 27-inch All-Silk Shantung Pongee, in the following shades: Natural, Copenhagen, brown, wistaria, black and white; $1.00 value, 75c yard. 36-inch Wash Habutai, about 50 pieces to select from, in various stripes, suitable for waists and men's shirts, 75c and 89c the yard. 36-inch Rough Pongee, suitable for coats and suits; natural, dark Copenhagen, light blue, navy and black; only 59c yard.

Linoleum and Oil Cloth

Extraordinary Values 50c Oilcloth, 35c Square Yard.

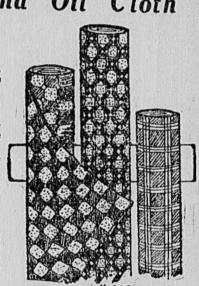

Heavy Floor Oilcloth, light and dark colors; large assortment.

70c Cork Linoleum, 50c Square Yard. High Grade Cork Linoleum, well covered and tile patterns. $1.40 Inlaid Linoleum, 98c Square Yard. Heavy Inlaid Linoleum, mosaic, tile and pretty hardwood patterns. $1.25 Inlaid Linoleum, 75c Square Yard.

Ten rolls Good Inlaid Linoleum, hardwood and tile patterns, suitable for any place where linoleum is

BRISTOL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch) Bristol, Va., May 3 .- The annual conventions of Holston Conference, held here durtion of the Women's Missionary organizations of Hoiston Conference, held here during the last days of the week, brought many prominent women of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, here from all parts of the conference.

Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Hicks are again domiciled at their home on Fourth Street after spending the winter on the Island of Captiva, off the southern coast of Florida.

Captain A. S. McNell is at home from Southern Florida, accompanied by Mrs. McNell. Captain McNell was quite sick sin Florida, but is now convalescing.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Huntsman are being welcomed by their friends and neighbors upon their return from Eustis, Fla., where they spent the winter months.

Mrs. Joseph C. Rhea has returned from New Orleans, where she spent two months with friends and relatives.

Rev. Charles G. Hounshell, a former missionary to Korea, was the guest this week of Major and Mrs. A. D. Reynolds.

Mrs. C. C. Carson and her mother, Mrs. Cassells, of Savannah, Ga., have returned to the Carson home here after a visit to friends in Johnson City.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Caldwell, Mrs. J. J. Hager and a party of young men from King College, attended the closing exercises of the high school at Green Springs Friday night. Clinton Hager, of Bristol, was principal of the school, which held its closing exercises.

BOWLING GREEN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Bowling Green, Va., May 3.—Miss Lelia
acy, of Richmond, is spending some time with Miss Louise Haines.
Miss Caroline G. Broaddus, Mrs. Waiter with Miss Louise Haines.

Miss Caroline G. Broaddus, Mrs. Walter Wilson and Mrs. James T. Richards spent a part of this week in Richmond.

Miss Bessle Jones, who has been visiting friends in Richmond, has returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ryland, of Richmond, spent a part of this week with Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Broaddus.

Mrs. Daniels, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John L. White, at the Old Manston. Miss Bessie Jones, who has been visiting friends in Richmond, has returned home. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ryland, of Richmond, spent a part of this week with Dr. and Mrs. Charles Ryland, of Richmond, spent a part of this week with Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Broaddus.

Mrs. Daniels, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John L. White, at the Old Mansion.

Mrs. Brock, who has been spending some time with her mother, Mrs. White, has returned to her home in Raitimore.

Miss Annie Green, after a visit of several weeks to Mr. and Mrs. Willard W. Green, has turned to her home in Hanover County. Miss Mary Woolfok spent this week with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Jordan, William G. White, of Whites, who has been ill at a hospital in Richmond for a number of weeks, has improved a great deal in health and returned to his home this week.

ARVONIA

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., May 3.—The annual conven-ion of the Women's Missionary organiza-Bagwell, pastor of Mount Zion, Buckingham and Arvonia Baptist Churches, who lives at Mount Zion, left Thursday of last week for North Dakota, where he went to look after Mount Zion, left Thursday of last week for North Dakota, where he went to look after some valuable real estate belonging to Mrs. Bagweil. He is expected to return here within a few weeks, lkey. Mr. Davis supplying his pignist during his absence.

William J. Hubard, grand lecturer of Royal Arch Masonry in Virginia, spent this week and a portion of last week here with the Arvonia Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. Mr. Hubard has visited this chapter several times since its establishment in September, 1893, and has been of much service to the chapter. The chapter now has a membership of over forty.

Dr. and Mrs. Perkins Glover left on Monday of this week for Richmond, where they will remain for some time. Mrs. Glover was operated on in a hospital there on Tuesday, and is recuperating.

Edward E. Roberts and D. Livingstone Pierce, both citizens of Arvonia, motored to Buckingham Courthouse on Tuesday of this week, returning here the same day.

W. W. Haskins, of Buckingham, clerk of the County School Board and a well known citizen, left for Houston, Tex., on Saturday of last week. He will be in Texas for some days, returning here perhaps next week.

Miss Rena Williams, who formerly lived here, but who now lives in Richmond, was a visitor here this week, attending the functal of the late Robert O. Jeffrey.

Edward Page, of Charlottesville, has been spending some time all Bridgeport, the guest of his relatives, Philip N. Nicholas and Miss Lucy Nicholas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pitts visited Richmond this week, Mrs. Perkins Glover, who is ill in a hospital.

A. L. Pitts, Jr., of Scottsville, spent several days here tast week yeiting his mother. Was COLUMBIA (Special to The Times-Disparch 1 Columbia, Va., May 3.—Mrs. Eliza Morton, who has been visiting friends and relatives here, has returned to her home in West Main Street, Richmond.

Mrs. A. J. Millikin, of New York, is the guest of Mrs. Dabney Cosby.
Miss Susie Hodgson has returned from a visit to Rock Castle and Richmond.
Misses Annie Lee Fleming and Sallie Smith, of Richmond, who were recent guests of friends here, have returned home.
Jack Leigh, of Richmond, spent the weekend at his old home here.
Misses Jennie Seay and Cora and Adelaide Walton spent Saturday of last week in Richmond.
Everett Mosby was a visitor to Richmond last week.
Miss Nannie Miller, who has been visiting friends in Stafford, has returned to her home here. Columbia, Va., May 3.-Mrs. Eliza Morton. Miss Namie Milier, who has been visited ing friends in Stafford, has returned to her home here.

Miss Elizabeth Cocke spent the weekend with Miss Nancy Payne at her home near this place.

Mrs. Virgilia Mosby has returned from a visit to Richmond.

Mrs. H. M. Foster and children, R. M., Jr., and Louise, who were recent guests of relatives here, have returned to their home in Princeton, W. Va.

Avis Wood spent several days in Richmond last week.

Miss Frances Hodgson entertained very delightfully the Monday Evening Card Club at her home on Cameron Street. Progressive setback was enjoyed until a late hour, after which dainty refreshments of fruit salad and wafers were served.

A meeting of the Jeffersonian Literary Society and Citzens' League was held in the auditorium of the High School on Friday evening. The program consisted of readings and music, both vocal and instrumental, and the address by Professor Hall, of Dillwyn High School, was enjoyed very much.

FARMVILLE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Farmville, Va., May 3.—Miss Belle Johnson, of Richmond, has been staying in the home of her brother, T. C. Johnson, Charles Ellington, of Rougemont, N. C., visited relatives and friends here this week, R. B. Johns, of Buckingham, has returned to his home, figure a protection. R. B. Johns, of Buckingham, has returned on his home after a protracted stay in the Memorial Hospital, Richmond.
Miss Grace Solden, who has been tenching a Carroll County, has returned home.
Miss Maggie Watkins, of Richmond, is sold Mrs. A. D. Watkins, who has been quite to be a controlled to the second stay. sick.

Mrs. F. D. Green is visiting Mrs. Lillian A.

Shepherd, of Norfolk.

HARRISONBURG

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Harrisonburg, Va. May 3.—Miss Sara Roller, of Staunton, was a guest this week of Miss Bessle Peck.

Miss Mary Waesche has returned to Buena Vista, after a visit of several months to Mrs. Herbert Coffman. Mrs. Coffman left this week for an extended visit to New York, Washington and Richmond.

Miss Nettle Eastham has returned from Philadelphia, where she accompanied her sister, Mrs. C. S. F. Lincoln, who is enroute to China, where Dr. Lincoln will resume his missionary work.

Mrs. A. C. Byers is visiting her brother, Rev. H. H. Sherman, in Staunton.

Mrs. Helen Jackson, mother of Rev. J. L. Jackson, the Episcopal rector, has returned from a visit to her former home in Baltimore.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Raieigh, N. C., May 3.—Miss Elizabeth McGee and Sue Thaxton gave their graduating plan or ceital Thursday evening, soring a brilliant success and delighting a company of admiring friends.

Miss Mae Grimmer and Miss Sousley were the participants in a successful recital by the advance music pupils of Mereditin College on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John S. McDonaid, of Lumberton, a former Raleigh girl, was a popular visitor in the city the past week. She was given a number of informal social attentions. She was here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Timberiake has as her guest Mrs. J. C. Wiggins, of Bosson, Alts. Vig. Miss Mary Waseche has returned to Buend Vista, after a visit of several months to Mrs. Herbert Coffman Mrs. Coffman left tills week for an extended visit to New York, Washington and Richmona of from York, Washington and Richmona from Sister, Mrs. C. S. F. Lincoln, who is enjoute to China, where Dr. Lincoln will resister, Mrs. C. S. F. Lincoln, who is enjoute to China, where Dr. Lincoln will resister with the missionary work.

Rev. H. H. Shergs is visituation.

Mrs. Helen Jackson, mother of Rev. J. Lackson, the Episcopal rector, has returned from a visit to the former home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Helen Jackson, mother of Rev. J. L. Jackson, the Episcopal rector, has returned from a visit to the former home in Baltimore.

Miss. T. P. Vager and mother Mrs. J. G. Hader, have gone to Ronceverte, W. Va. to that relatives of Lexington, is here on a visit to Miss Dick Rhodes.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Palnter, who spent the winter in Florida, have arrived in Dayton for an extended sojourn, and mrs. Palnter, who spent the winter in Florida, have arrived in Dayton for an extended sojourn, and mrs. Palnter, Wrs. A. K. Hopkins.

J. Sublett.

FREELING

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]

FreeELING

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]

FreeIng. Va. May 3—Treeling Mullins, the week.

Mrs. W. William McFall, of Beicamp, is visiting relatives at Freeling. this week.

Mrs. W. William McFall has returned to William McFall, and weeks visit to her days to the week will to her weeks of Mrs. Well to her son, but the week will to her son, but the

Mrs. Charles Reed is visiting her mother.
Mrs. Wesley Y. Vanover, of near Clintwood.

James G. McFall, of Osborn's Gap, passed through town on hie way to Pound, during the week.

Mrs. Charles Reed is visiting her mother, the Governor's Mansion, spent the week
Briggs
Mrs. Charles Reed is visit, the Governor's Mansion, spent the week
Mrs. Charles Reed is visit week.

RALEIGH